琵琶湖八景 Biwako-Hakkei

Biwako-hakkei are eight places of scenic beauty around Lake Biwa. They were selected in 1950.

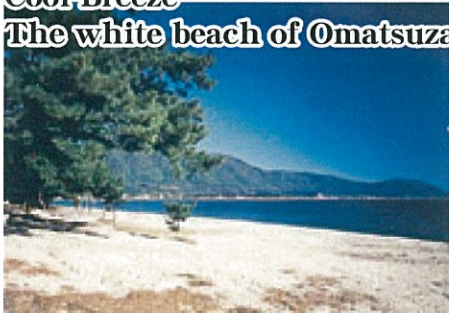

Hazy Dawn
The granite cliffs at Kaizuosaki

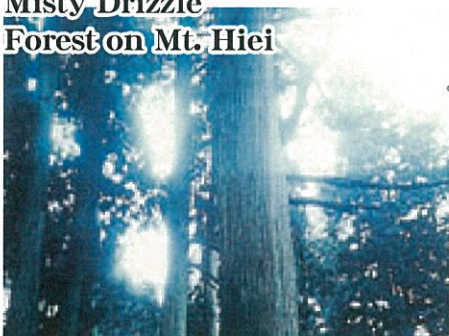

Deep Green
Subtle reflection of Chikubu Island

Cool Breeze
The white beach of Omatsuzaki

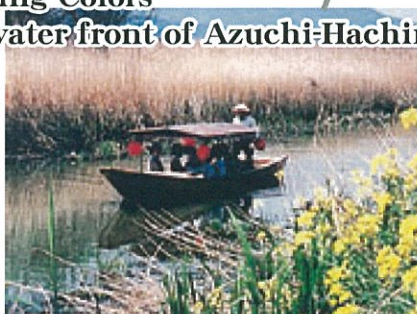

Misty Drizzle
Forest on Mt. Hiei

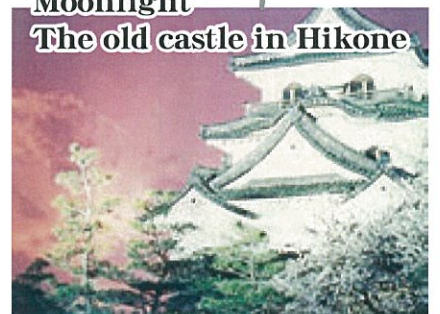

Sunset
The crystal-clear water in Seta

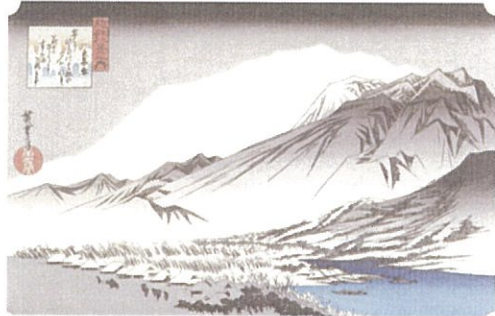

Spring Colors
A waterfront of Azuchi-Hachiman

Moonlight
The old castle in Hikone

The spring snow at Hira

The wild geese returning home at Katata

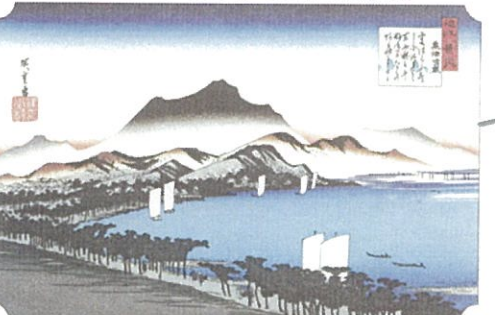

The evening rain at Karasaki

The evening gong at Mii

The distant view of Awazu

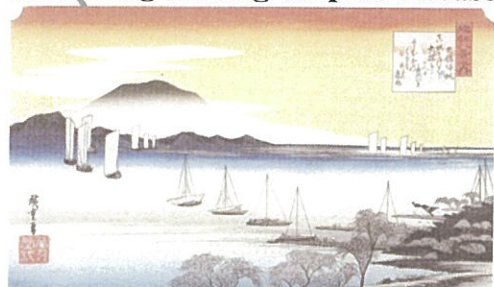

The autumn moon at Ishiyama

The evening glow at Seta

The returning sailing ship at Yabase

近江八景 Omi-Hakkei

The 'Omi-Hakkei' are the eight most beautiful scenes in the southern part of Lake Biwa. They were probably chosen in the 13th century. Ando Hiroshige's woodblock prints became famous for depicting the 'Omi Hakkei'.
